VMS Hires in Midst of High Demand

Filed on Monday, July 31, 2017

(401kWire) - Bob Ward, chief revenue officer at VMS has had quite the busy schedule. With a bunch of meetings scheduled, and several partnerships in the works, two new executives were brought to VMS.

With this increased demand, Ward tells 401kWire that Sevgi Eason, and Cort Williams will join VMS at the start of August, as "the demand for compliance regulatory technology has skyrocketed."

Eason will be responsible for sales, and acquiring new clients. For Eason, a sales role is far from unfamiliar. She's held executive sales positions at eFront, FIS, and SimCorp. She was actually the hire hinted at in previous coverage.

For Williams, it's a similar situation. Like Eason, he's a sales executive himself, where he's held high positions at Strategic Advisor, Informa, and Inc. At VMS, he will assume the role as head of product.

"We have partnership announcements to come, and we are very busy," says Ward. "VMS is well positioned to help provide firms with investment oversight."
